Keep the fun going on fourth Fridays, after the Rock the Block concerts conclude: visit a city restaurant or tavern — and use a special coupon to receive a discount.

In Rock the Block After Dark, participating restaurants, nightclubs, and other eateries in the city offer discounts to patrons who present a special After Dark coupon to their servers.

Printed coupons must be presented at the establishment for a discount. Coupons are good only on the evening of the Rock the Block concert, and only from participating vendors.

The city encourages business owners from around the city to consider this opportunity. Businesses owners who are interested in participating in Rock the Block After Dark may contact the Economic Development Office for information: 703-385-7851, Economic.Development@fairfaxva.gov.

City Introduces New Logomark, Brand, To Accompany City Seal

The City of Fairfax has introduced a new logomark and tagline, Live Life Connected, to strengthen the city's identity and help streamline communications imaging for promotional purposes. Look for special activities and prizes at the roll-out during the Independence Day events July 4.

The logomark and "Fairfax City" will be used for economic development, promotional campaigns, marketing, special events, and cultural arts. Look for it at these events, on promotional materials, and on the city website in these instances.

The city will use Live Life Connected in its promotional materials, and social media users are encouraged to use #LiveLifeConnected regarding the city.

The logomark (right, above) consolidates other promotional imagery previously used by the city, and complements the official City of Fairfax seal (right, below), adopted in 1973.

The seal will continue to be used on legal and official documents and communications from the city government, the Mayor and City Council, city boards and commissions, and city staff. The police department and fire department will continue to use their shields. Municipal vehicles will display the city seal or appropriate shield.

The logomark, seals, and shields are city property, and may not be used without permission. Information: 703-385-7850.

What do we mean by Live Life Connected?

Living Life Connected in the City of Fairfax is a way of life: connecting with family, friends, and community in the small-town atmosphere, with history all around us. Connecting with nature in parks and on trails, and with the arts through festivals and events. Connecting with education through top-rated schools, and neighboring colleges and universities. Connecting with merchants at local shops. Connecting with the region from interconnected roadways.

Fairfax Resolution 2017: Volunteer

In July, live life connected in the City of Fairfax by volunteering in your community.

Start at home: check with your homeowner association or rental office for opportunities in your neighborhood.

Consider applying for a city or regional board or commission. See the current vacancies posted in The Cityscene (on page 4), on Cityscreen-12, and on the city website.

The School Board appoints city representatives to Fairfax County Public School boards and commissions — and current opportunities include the Fairfax County Public Schools Facilities and Planning Advisory Council and Fairfax County Public Schools Student Health Advisory Committee. Information: www.cityoffairfaxschools.org, 703-385-7911.

Also, think regionally with opportunities shared by Volunteer Fairfax (www.volunteerfairfax.org, 703-246-3460).

Follow Fairfax Resolution in 2017 to (re) discover a city service or a treasure every month. Information: 703-385-7855.

Deadlines for Election Filing is July 14

City residents who wish to qualify to appear on the ballot for the September 12 Special Election for City Council (one position) must submit their completed paperwork and petitions by 5 p.m. July 14. Packets are available at the Sisson House (adjacent to City Hall) and online at www.fairfaxva.gov/vote. Information: 703-385-7890.

Ashby Pond Receives Wildlife Habitat Designation

The Audubon Society of Northern Virginia recently designated Ashby Pond Conservatory Site as a "Wildlife Sanctuary."

To receive the designation, communities must attract 10 of the group's "Sanctuary Species:" selected native birds, mammals, reptiles, amphibians, and insects needing help due to loss of habitat.

The city also met the "Healthy Park Pledge" of reducing pesticide and fertilizer use; planting native species; and supporting birds and other wildlife through the use of pollinator and rain gardens, meadows, and water aerators.

The Wildlife Sanctuary Program is a volunteer project that promotes citizen participation in conserving and restoring local habitat and biodiversity. Information: 703-385-7858.

Year of Safety: Bicycle Safety Tips

The City of Fairfax Police Department offers bicycle safety tips as part of its Year of Safety campaign. Information: 703-273-2889.

Cyclists should always ride with traffic and follow the rules of the road. Ride on the road, bike lane, or paved shoulder: motorists do not look for cyclists on sidewalks, and are more likely to strike them.

Obey traffic signs and signals, and use hand signals when stopping and turning. Be aware of other vehicles and pedestrians, be visible, and make eye contact.

Ride straight and be predictable. Be on the lookout for hazards, such as motorists opening doors, turning, or pulling out of parking spaces and driveways.

Tip/Toss Standing Water To Help Eliminate Mosquitoes

"Fight the bite" and help avoid possible exposure to viruses such as Zika and West Nile by implementing a household mosquito control program, with help from the Fairfax County Health Department. Information: 703-246-2411, www.fairfaxcounty.gov/hd/westnile/mosquito.htm.

Tip and toss standing water, or treat standing water with safe larvicides and carefully treat the yard with safe insecticides. (Keep butterflies and other outdoor friends in mind when treating.) Install, repair, or replace screens on doors and windows.

Health Department officials conduct residential yard inspections by appointment to find and eliminate sources of mosquitoes. Information: 703-246-8931, FightTheBite@fairfaxcounty.gov.

Real-Time Transit Service Information in City Hall, Library

Fairfax travelers can find real-time service information for local transportation services on new monitors in City Hall (second floor lobby) and in the City of Fairfax Regional Library lobby. The Fairfax City Economic Development Authority and the city's Transportation Division launched this new service in partnership with the locally-based digital service company TransitScreen. Information: 703-385-7851.

Enforcement Begins July 1 at New 'Respect Red' Intersections

Red light camera enforcement begins July 1 at two additional intersections in the city, as part of the Respect Red Program:

- Eastbound Main Street (Route 236) at Woodland Drive
- Westbound and eastbound Fairfax Boulevard (Route 50) at Jermantown Road

On June 1, signs were installed next to the affected intersections, indicating that photo red light has been adopted at that location, and warnings began being issued.

Information about this program and affected intersections is published on the city website; on Cityscreen-12, the city television station; on social media; and in the Cityscene.

The City of Fairfax has conducted photo red light enforcement since 2011. Multiple cameras monitor traffic at these intersections. Multiple people, including city police officers, review evidence before citations are issued.

Notices are sent to the registered owners of vehicles identified on-camera with information on how to access violation information using a secure website and individual codes.

Visit the city website for a list of Respect Red intersections and the procedure regarding regulations and citations. Information: 703-273-2889.

Recycling Center Changes Hours, Materials Accepted

Effective July 1, the City of Fairfax Recycling Center at the Property Yard will change its hours to 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. daily, and will be closed on holidays observed by the city (including July 4). The center also will stop accepting small household items for donation.

The city has experienced an increase in inappropriate materials dumped at the recycling center. This creates a hazardous environment for Recycling Center patrons, and costs the city thousands of dollars every month in staff time and resources.

Dumping non-acceptable items at the center will result in investigation and, if appropriate, fines and prosecution.

Check the city website for the Solid Waste Service Guide, which lists items accepted at the Recycling Center, or request a copy: RefuseRecycling@fairfaxva.gov, 703-385-7837.

The Recycling Center does not accept household hazardous waste. Please take these items to Fairfax County Household Hazardous Waste facilities. The closest facility to the city for refuse, recycling, hazardous waste and electronics disposal, and more is the I-66 Transfer Station, 4618 West Ox Road; 703-324-5320.

Solid Waste Services Guide, Recycling Bins Available

Keep Fireworks Safe; Remember the City's Evening Show July 4

Fireworks are as dangerous as they are beautiful, and their misuse can cause fires, injury, property loss — even death.

Not all fireworks are permitted in the city. Fireworks that explode, emit a flame or spark higher than 15 feet, or are projectiles, are banned in the city — even if they are available for sale elsewhere. Possessing or using illegal fireworks is punishable by fine or incarceration.

Purchase only fireworks for sale by licensed merchants, and handle them with great care.

For safety, light fireworks on flat surfaces, away from combustible materials, vehicles and buildings, and keep bystanders at least 25 feet away from fireworks. Do not permit children to handle or light fireworks, and do not throw fireworks. Information: 703-385-7830.

Remember, the city hosts a free Independence Day Evening Show at 6 p.m. July 4, complete with magnificent fireworks and live music. Information: 703-385-7858, www.fairfaxva.gov/july4.
